8. REPORTS

A. IEM Report: After welcoming our new board members, John Wilberger announced the following exciting programs: ILP/CHRIS project, Electronic Attendance, Online Applications, and Transitional Kindergarten. He then gave the following enrollment numbers for South Sutter Charter School: 2197 active students with 43 prospective students. Diana asked about the transitional kindergarten program and was instructed to call Brenda for details. Becky Cote stated that we finished WASC. It was a good visit, but won't know the results until the first week of May. Nichole Sawatzky was introduced as our new liaison who handles GEAs. Amy Lehman asked about attendance of non-enrolled students on GEAs. Cyndi Denning explained that we do not have a parent volunteer to collect money from other parents. Amy Lehman volunteered to collect parent money. Heather Jones also volunteered to collect money as well as make suggestions for GEAs. Brandi Weems asks if Common Core will affect our school. Cyndi explained that it will be more about standards, not curriculum specific. There will also be STAR test changes as well as changes to state adopted curriculum if that is what you chose to use.
