- 8. IEM Report: Eric Schoffstall thanked parents for participating on the School Council. He also reported that IEM is continuing their work on the ILP project. The Individual learning plan tool will use a student's profile to identify the best possible available curriculum. Nancy Krsulic asked if this will assist students with IEPs. Eric stated that it will assist all students regardless of their educational plan. Eric also explained the new State Board of Education's revocations regulations. Glenda McBride asked if charter schools will be shut down for participation or scores. Eric stated that the regulations are based on 2 major parts: A school that has had a statewide API rank of 1 for two consecutive years and has failed to gain 50 cumulative points on its API over the last three years will be considered for revocation. Glenda asked how soon until that will take effect? Eric stated that it is already in effect. Thirdly, project alumni survey is now complete. Information will be up on our school website as early as April.
